Javier Gándara, easyJet Spain & Portugal Director

easyJet, the UK's leading airline has recently celebrated its 20th anniversary. Its activity in Spain began in 1996 with its Barcelona-London Luton route and is currently the fourth most used airline in the country.

The number of passengers from and to Spain on easyJet flights last year was close to 13.9 million, which represents a 6% increase from 2015. During the 20 years in business, the airline has carried out more than 780 routes in 31 countries and has a fleet of 240 aircrafts.

Innovation is part of the airline's DNA. easyJet has changed the way of flying and is currently the industry's leader in digital innovation, web engineering to ensure that the travel of its passengers is made easy, simple and affordable.

To all this, the airline's commitment to sustainability is combined. easyJet has achieved its goal in respect of carbon emissions, which are now lower than 22% per passenger.

During the Leadership & Strategy Lunch event, Javier Gándara will tell us more about all of the challenges faced by aviation and easyJet.
